

New to Arizona?

Want to learn how to hunt small game?

Oct. 19-21, 2007

Mount Graham, squirrel

The Arizona Game and Fish Department is offering a weekend workshop, Oct. 19-21, on small game hunting in Arizona, sponsored by the Forest Service and South Eastern Arizona Sportsmen's Club.

Get experience pursuing and field dressing squirrel at Mount Graham. Study the secrets of small-game behavior. Learn to choose the right clothing and ammunition. Practice setting up a comfortable hunting camp. Find out how to gain and maintain permission to hunt on privately owned land and hunt safely.

All participants must purchase a hunting license and pay a $40 registration fee. The following will be provided:

- Meals (breakfast, lunch, dinner)
- Water, coffee and hot chocolate
- Marshmallow roast
- Firearms and ammunition (you may bring your own)

No alcohol; no exceptions.

Space is limited to 20 people. Participants must be at least 7 years of age to attend. Pre-registration is required and a non-refundable deposit of $40 per person ensures your space is saved.
